Charges Favoritism on Post Office Site

Editor The Star: I wish to clear up two points which seem to have been misunderstood in my open letter to Oren Harris dated February 24, 1964, and which was carried by your paper the same date.

First: The first location for the post office at Elm and Fifth Sts. was made by the General Services Administration without any known political influences being exerted.

Second: The Hope Post Office will soon be called upon to give expanded services to a much larger territory, and therefore as I tried to make plain in my first letter, I heartily endorse the building of a new post office and federal building because the present building will then be inadequate. However, I do not think Mr. Harris should favor a chosen few people by putting the post office in a traffic bottle-neck on narrow Second St. out of the business district.

As stated in my original letter I know a vast majority of the people desire the post office to be located on the downtown site. This site would not only be convenient for everyone but would also be one of the finest things that could be done for our town. It would remove a half-block of undesirable buildings and therefore make the whole downtown area look better.

Mr. Harris has refused to make any effort to get the GSA to abide by the wishes of the vast majority of the citizens of Hope and if he is going to pay political debts to a few chosen people rather than listen to the voice of the people then I sincerely believe we need a new congressman, and as stated before I know that he will have opposition in the forthcoming Democratic primary.

Young Hope First Choice of Kidnapers

By JAMES BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — As Frank Sinatra Jr., waited in a nearby witness room, an FBI agent testified in federal court that the son of Bob Hope — not young Sinatra — was first choice of a kidnap plot.

FBI Agent Emmett Murphy testified Thursday that Barry Keenan told him that he first thought of abducting Tony Hope, 23, Harvard law student, but quickly abandoned the idea. Murphy quoted Keenan as saying "Bob Hope was such a good American and had done so much in entertaining the troops, this shouldn't be done to Bob Hope."

Keenan later told a newsman that he and Tony Hope were once school chums in St. John's Military Academy in suburban Chatsworth.

In Las Vegas, Nev., the senior Hope said of the testimony, "It's a terrible thing. I guess if it had happened, I would have followed the same routine as Frank (Sr.)."

In another disclosure, FBI Agent Robert E. Russell quoted defendant Joseph Amsler as saying that the original Sinatra kidnap plot was scheduled the night of Nov. 22, 1963 — the night of President Kennedy's assassination.

Russell quoted Amsler as saying the assassination so upset John Irwin, the third defendant, that the whole thing was called off.

Keenan and Amsler, both 23, and Irwin, 42, are accused of kidnaping the 20-year-old son of the singing star from his Lake Tahoe motel room last Dec. 8. Frank Jr., was returned unharmed to his mother's home in Bel-Air after his father paid $240,000 ransom.

Says Arkansas Lagging on Super Roads

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce said today in its monthly bulletin that the state is lagging in completion of segments of its interstate highway system.

Acting state Highway Director Ward Goodman confirmed that Arkansas is not completing as much interstate work as other states, but he said this is because Arkansas is doing the most difficult sections first.

Some states, Goodman said, are doing their work in open country, where more pavement can be completed faster.

The state chamber newsletter quoted U.S. Bureau of Public Roads statistics for September 1963, which said Arkansas had opened only 14.7 per cent of its interstate system.

Oklahoma had completed 58 per cent, Texas 42 per cent, Missouri 46 per cent, Mississippi 28, Louisiana 16 and Tennessee 15.

Arkansas has designated 520 miles for its system. Oklahoma has 794, Texas 3,031, Missouri 1,104, Mississippi 678, Louisiana 682 and Tennessee 1,047.

The national average of completed mileage last September was 38 per cent, the newsletter said.

Arkansas has opened 117 miles of interstate highway.

This Was Never One Horse Town

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP) — This southwest Missouri city of 11,000 never was a one-horse town. The Carthage Press recently found more than 50 fancy hitching posts in the central part of the city, left from the era when horse and mule were the chief means of local transportation.

The hitching posts were made of polished grey marble, a product of this area and designed by skilled craftsmen. Most of them are in excellent condition. The city fathers now proclaim Carthage is the hitching post capital of the world.

Deaths Around the Nation

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — Frederick W. Ecker, 67, of Greenwich, Conn., retired chairman of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., died Thursday of a heart attack.

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — Adele Croce, 84, widow of Italian statesman, philosopher and critic Benedetto Croce, died Wednesday. Croce, a member of postwar Italian governments, died in 1952.

PETALUMA, Calif. (AP) — La Selle Gilman, 56, former war correspondent and onetime city editor of the China Press in Shanghai, died Wednesday. Gilman had been under treatment for lung cancer for six months.

Heavy Damage in Local Accident

A truck driven by James R. Lumpkin and a car driven by Brenda Hicks collided yesterday on South Main with heavy damage resulting to both vehicles.

Officers Pedron and Long said the truck was turning off Main and was hit by the auto which attempted to pass. Officers charged Miss Hicks with improper passing.

SW Foods Pass Federal Inspection

Federal Meat Inspection has been granted the Southwestern Frozen Foods at Hope, Arkansas according to an announcement from the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington. Inspection was granted on February 24, 1964.

Granting of Federal Meat Inspection to Southwestern Frozen Foods means that this plant has undergone thorough investigation of its buildings, equipment, and processing methods and has met the Government's high standards for protection of consumers.

Products from Southwestern Frozen Foods are now eligible for shipment in interstate and foreign trade, since Federal inspection is one of the legal requirements for interstate and export shipment of meat and meat food products. A Federal inspector will be on hand to give continuous supervision at all times the establishment is in operation.

Hoffa in Last Ditch Attack on Witness

By GAVIN SCOTT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — James R. Hoffa's lawyers make a last-ditch effort today to knock the props from the government's jury-tampering case against the Teamsters Union president.

With the jury excused until the start of final arguments — probably Monday — the defense planned to renew its attempt to throw out the testimony of Edward G. Partin, a Baton Rouge, La., teamsters official who became the chief witness against Hoffa.

Testimony in the six-week-old trial was completed Thursday, but U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson agreed to allow a hearing on the Partin matter before calling in the jury for an estimated two days of final arguments.

The jury could begin deliberations by Tuesday night or Wednesday.

Hoffa and five others on trial are accused of trying to fix the jury that heard his 1962 conspiracy trial at Nashville. That trial ended with a deadlocked jury and a mistrial.

In six days in the witness chair, Partin linked Hoffa and four of those on trial with him to alleged attempts to bribe two jurors and a prospective juror in the conspiracy trial.

The defense, in arguing that Partin's testimony should be suppressed, contend it stemmed from an illegal act: recording of two telephone conversations between Partin and Hoffa.

They are charged in the 1961 gun-torch slaying of Fred A. Tones, a real estate man, at Houston.

The initial order of 400 copies of the John F. Kennedy hard-cover book "The Torch Is Passed" has been fully delivered by Hope Star, and we will now receive orders for a second shipment.

The book is priced at $2 per copy postpaid, a bargain made possible only by the fact that the printers who manufacture it for The Associated Press have already run off more than 2

Johnson Opens Drive on Civil Rights Stand

By FRANK CORMIER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Johnson opened his 1964 election campaign by taking a solid stand for civil rights before a Southern audience.

He also shook hands with street-corner crowds, paid a visit to the father of the late President John F. Kennedy in Palm Beach, cuffed the Republicans, and generally seemed to enjoy himself on a quick, four-stop trip to a hotel nightclub to see the entertainers Tony Martin and Cyd Charisse.

Johnson told 3,000 fellow Democrats at a fund-raising dinner Thursday night that "full participation in our society can no longer be reserved to men of one color."

"The administration," he said "intends to press forward with legislation, with education and with action until we have eliminated the last barrier of intolerance." The applause was modest.

Four times, Johnson was applauded when he said that all Americans—regardless of color, region or religion—have certain constitutional rights and human rights that must be respected.

But, to observers on the sidelines, it appeared that about half the audience sat still and silent.

Miami Beach was the fourth stop on Johnson's Florida tour. He flew from Washington to Jacksonville Naval Air Station, where, after shaking a few hands, he proceeded by helicopter to Palatka to break ground for the cross-Florida barge canal that will link the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts.

After returning to the air station, Johnson flew by jet transport to Palm Beach, where he paid a courtesy call on ailing Joseph P. Kennedy, father of the late president. Then Johnson, his wife and two daughters boarded a helicopter and followed the coast to Miami Beach.

Although a number of these moves were made without advance announcement, Johnson gave no sign that he was concerned about his safety.

At least five times during his Miami Beach stay, the President waded into thick crowds to shake hands, and the crowd pushed and shoved around him.

Murder Case in Hands of Jury

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The first degree murder trial of Carolyn Ann Lima, 21, is in the hands of the jury.

Dist. Judge Miron A. Love locked the jury up overnight and said he would receive a verdict — if one is reached — today. The jury deliberated two hours late Thursday.

Miss Lima was convicted earlier on the same charge and sentenced to die, but a federal court granted her a new trial.

She had been convicted with Leslie Douglas Ashley, formerly of Hot Springs, Ark. He, too, was sentenced to die, but was granted a new trial, to be held later.

They are charged in the 1961 gun-torch slaying of Fred A. Tones, a real estate man, at Houston.

More Jurors Called in Ruby Case

By RELMAN MORIN

DALLAS (AP) — Judge Joe B. Brown began swearing in 50 more prospective jurors today to hear Jack Ruby's trial on charges of murder with malice. So far, seven men and two women have been accepted as jurors, leaving three to be found.

Under Texas law, only 12 jurors are sworn. Should one become incapacitated during the hearings, a mistrial would be called.

Newsman were barred today while the new group was being impaneled.

Chief defense counsel Melvin Belli said that, despite the delay, attorneys hope to complete the jury and begin hearing testimony Monday morning.

To find the first nine jurors, 110 persons were questioned through Thursday. Originally, 150 jury candidates were made available. Some were excused before the trial began Feb. 17. Only 26 of that list remained available as today's session started.

The ninth juror, 108th on the list, was sworn in Thursday. He is James E. Cunningham, 34, an electronics engineer. He said he was born in Cleveland, Ohio and lived in Morristown, N.J., before coming to Dallas.

He was the only juror accepted in a long day.

Cunningham has a wife and three children, was trained at the University of Texas, and listed his religion as Episcopalian.

Cunningham said he saw only parts of a rerun of the televised scene, recorded last Nov. 24 when Ruby killed Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas.

Oswald had been charged with assassinating President John F. Kennedy on Nov. 22. Ruby, 52, faces a possible sentence of death in the electric chair. His defense will be based on temporary insanity.

Rain, Snow Fall in the Southeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain and snow hit eastern sections of the nation today after heavy rains doused areas in the Southeast but generally dry weather prevailed in most other regions.

Low clouds and fog blanketed the northeast Gulf in the wake of the rain that swept the areas Thursday and spread to the East Coast. Heaviest rainfall was in Tallahassee, Fla., with five inches during an 18-hour period.

As the storm moved northward, snow fell in parts of Kentucky and rain and snow hit southern Virginia. Fairly heavy snow was indicated in the southern Appalachians, with light snow and rain in prospect along the entire East Coast.

Only other wet spots were the northern and central Plains and the Upper Great Lakes region, with light snow or snow flurries. Fair or partly cloudy skies were reported in other parts of the nation.

Coldest weather was in New England with below zero temperatures, ranging to 13 below zero in Old Town, Maine. It was 10 below zero in Montpelier, Vt., and Lebanon, N.H. Readings were near zero in parts of Upstate New York.

Reds Rush Viet Nam Drive to Oust Americans

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Communists are distributing leaflets in Saigon calling for an all-out drive against Americans to coincide with the observance of a Communist holiday next week.

"Pledged to the complete eradication of U.S. forces here and pressing for the neutralization of the southern area, the National Liberation Front Saigon-Cholon-Gia-Dinh Zone Committee has issued instructions to its military, paramilitary and political organizations," the leaflets read.

"Every effort must be made to carry out a sabotage campaign to celebrate the coming anniversary of the Viet Nam Lao Dong party" — North Vietnamese Communist Labor party on March 3.

Reliable informants said U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had received several assassination threats in letters and had agreed to tighter security precautions. He has shunned tight security and walked around Saigon by himself, without guards.

During the day, a grenade thrown into a suburban police station exploded and wounded six policemen on duty, none seriously. It was the first bombing to result in casualties in more than a week.

American and Vietnamese security precautions were sharply tightened in Saigon after the bombing of the American community theater Feb. 16 in which three Americans were killed.

No additional precautions are planned for the March 3 holiday. Communist holidays occur frequently, and security officials always expect trouble.

Tight security continues to be maintained at the American school and at all official American establishments. Americans have been warned to keep social functions to a minimum.

FHA Loans to 87 County Families

Credit to purchase livestock and equipment and meet other farm operating costs helped 87 Hempstead County families increase their incomes in 1963. Hempstead County supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration reported this week.

Mr. High said that his agency made operating loans totaling $322,945 to farmers in the county during 1963.

Loans are made only to farmers who are unable to obtain credit from conventional lenders. They may be used to buy machinery and equipment, livestock, feed, seed and fertilizer, to pay other farm and home costs, and to refinance debts.

Loans in the upper teens to upper 20s are predicted Saturday morning before the warming trend.

Commoner to Wed Japan Princess

TOKYO (AP) — A petite 23-year-old girl met her future in-laws today — the emperor and empress of Japan — and passed the test with flying colors.

Despite a case of jitters, Hanako Tsuguru formally received the sanction of the imperial family council to marry Prince Yoshii, 28, third in line to the throne.

The fourth daughter of the former Count Yoshitaka, whose family once ruled northern Japan, Hanako was reportedly chosen from some 800 possible candidates.

Corn Belt Now Subsidiary of Kroger Co.

Mrs. Freda Greenan, President and founder of Corn Belt Hatcheries of Arkansas, Inc., announced today, under an agreement signed by officials of both companies, that Corn Belt will now operate as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Kroger Company. The hatcheries will continue to supply Kroger stores with Government-graded eggs.

Mrs. Greenan plans to remain active in management of the company. No changes in operating or personnel policies are planned. Mrs. Greenan said. Headquarters will remain in Hope, and company will continue to use the name, Corn Belt Hatcheries of Arkansas, Inc.

Kroger pioneered in offering "guaranteed-quality, Government-graded" eggs to its customers, and credits this program with increasing consumer demand for eggs in Kroger stores. The company has long operated several egg collection, grading, and packing plants throughout its territory to supply the 1425 Kroger supermarkets.

"We are delighted to become associated with a company that recognizes the importance of supplying its customers with consistently high-quality eggs," Mrs. Greenan said. "Kroger provides a year-round market for eggs from this area," she said, pointing out that the company plans to continue and expand use of eggs produced by local family-type farms.

30 FBI Agents to Probe Rail Strike Bombing

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The FBI will send a chief inspector and a force of 30 agents to crack down on violence in the Florida East Coast Railway strike. The action was sparked by presidential command following the dynamiting of a train near where President Johnson was speaking.

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The full force of the federal government was brought to bear on the Florida East Coast Railway strike on presidential command today following the dynamiting of a train near the spot where President Johnson was speaking.

Johnson asked Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz to confer today with Florida Gov. Farris Bryant, then present recommendations for federal action.

Also, at Johnson's request, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover dispatched a top-notch inspector to head an FBI crackdown on the sabotage.

"This criminal action has got to stop," the President declared as he departed from what had been a purely political address to a Democratic fund-raising dinner Thursday night.

"I am not passing judgment on who is right or who is wrong," Johnson said. "But as the leader and spokesman for all the people of this nation, I am saying that you cannot take the law into your own hands."

Johnson was late appearing at the banquet and apologized, saying he had been conferring with Hoover and Wirtz.

Railroad officials list more than 200 acts of sabotage since the strike began Jan. 23, 1963. "The violence started after the road began moving freight with nonunion help about six weeks after the walkout."

The tempo picked up three months ago after a presidential emergency board recommended that the road give its 1,300 off-train workers the raise they asked, and the road refused.

The latest two explosions, the fourth and fifth this month—occurred within a few miles of each other near St. Augustine. The second went off about the time that President Johnson, 15 miles away in Palatka, pressed a button that started construction on the cross-Florida barge canal.

Life Flickers Back Into Stamp Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — New life flickered today in the administration's food stamp plan for needy families as the result of a set-back to a proposed tobacco research program.

The food stamp plan—part of President Johnson's antipoverty program—was sidetracked three weeks ago by the House Agriculture Committee and Thursday the House Rules Committee applied the same treatment to the smoking-and-health research proposal.

The connection between the two is that both come from the Agriculture Committee and that some members who voted to table the food stamp plan by a 19-14 margin would very much like to see the tobacco research bill passed.

Of such material are compromises fashioned, and Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., chairman of the Agriculture Committee, indicated he is vigorously trying to put one together.

Under it the Agriculture Committee would reconsider the food stamp bill, which seeks to expand and make permanent a program begun on a pilot basis in 1961.

Assuming the revived bill came out of the Agriculture Committee, the Rules Committee would then be asked to reconsider its action in blocking the tobacco research bill, which would authorize an estimated $10 million federally financed program.

Cooley was shocked by the 6-5 vote in the Rules Committee which kept the tobacco bill from going to the House floor. He devoted only a few minutes to explaining it to the committee and called it "fairly noncontroversial."

Quachita Meet to Hear Oren Harris

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The Quachita River Valley Association will hold its annual meeting in El Dorado March 26-27 with Reps. Otto Passman, D-La., and Oren Harris, D-Ark., the honored guests and President Johnson's budget cuts a major topic of discussion.

Delegates to the convention will discuss development of the Quachita and other pressing water projects.

President Johnson has budgeted $12,922,000 for projects in the Quachita River Valley in 1965. The Quachita River Valley Association's bulletin says the budget "is not all that had been hoped for, but the deficiencies appear to be proportionate to cuts in other basins."

The bulletin said the money will not keep Army Engineers working at their maximum on all projects, "but if the administration chooses this type of false economy and if all other basins are cut proportionately, we can live with it."

'64 CHEVROLET-The great highway performer

Foreground: Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe Background: Chevrolet Impala Station Wagon with roof luggage carrier*

Feels like somebody put a runway where the road should be!

With engines up to a 425-hp V8* and its luxurious Jet-smooth ride, you may not notice where air travel leaves off and a Chevrolet Impala begins. Take-offs are smooth and effortless. Hills seem flat as prairies. A big coil spring at each wheel and over 700 sound deadeners throughout the body and chassis make you feel you're hardly on the ground at all. You'll find all kinds of jet-age luxury inside an Impala's big, roomy Body by Fisher, too. Wide deep-cushioned seats, tailored with rich-looking fabrics and vinyls. Thick wall-to-wall carpeting. Soft background music from an AM-FM radio*, if you like. You can even get an automatic pilot (we call it a "speed and cruise control") that lets you log mile after turnpike mile without touching the accelerator. All in all, it's sky-high living at down-to-earth prices. And who but your Chevrolet dealer can offer a way to go quite like that?

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

McKee - Osborn Rites Read February 23

Miss Patricia Ann McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McKee, and Thomas Riley Osborn were married in a double-ring ceremony in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Osborn Sunday evening, February 23 at 6 o'clock.

The Rev. Harley Sisson officiated before an arch of greenery and white tapers in seven-branched candelabra. Baskets of white gladioli and greenery flanked the place of ceremony where vows were exchanged in the presence of immediate families and close friends.

The bride wore a white wool suit. Her short veil was attached to a halo of white velvet. On the white Bible, which was a gift of the groom, the bride pinned a bouquet of white feathered carnations centered with a purple-throated white orchid.

Miss Carolyn Sue McKee, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a pale blue suit and carried a bouquet of pink feathered carnations.

Denver Dickinson, Jr. served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. McKee, the mother of the bride, wore a gray suit with matching accessories, and the mother of the groom, Mrs. Osborn, wore a pink crepe dress. Each had a corsage of pink carnations.

Herbert Rogers was a special guest and brought one of the most enjoyable programs the scouts have had in some time. He showed colored slides of birds and answered any questions the girls had about them.

The 21 scouts were joined by five of their mothers, Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. Don Bennett, Mrs. Cecil Cox, Mrs. Albert Page, and Mrs. James Laughard. Cookies and cold drinks were served for refreshments.

'Peyton Place' Author Leaves Disputed Will

LACONIA, N.H. (AP)—With the approval of the New Hampshire Supreme Court, a simple funeral service was held Thursday for author Grace Metalious.

Her first husband, George Metalious; her father, Charles de Repentigny, and her three children were among the two dozen at the funeral home service insisted upon by her family.

The service conducted by the Rev. John Morrison of the Federated Church of Gilmanton, N.H., Metalious' home town.

One of two wills filed for probate had stipulated that there be no funeral, and that the body of the 39-year-old author of "Peyton Place" be given to Dartmouth or Harvard Medical School. That was the will signed on the eve of her death Tuesday in a Boston hospital, naming a collaborator-friend, John Rees, as sole heir to the estate which has been estimated as high as a million dollars.

The other will, drawn in 1958, left the estate to her three children — Marsha Dupuis, 20; Christopher, 17, and Cynthia, 13.

The children's counsel noted that the eyes had been given to the Boston Eye Bank, as asked in the later will, but that both Harvard and Dartmouth had refused the body in deference to the wishes of the family.

Woman Escapes Indictment

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Dallas County grand jury declined Thursday to indict a woman who shot at a man she thought was senatorial candidate Gordon McLendon.

A no-bill on the assault to murder charge against Elizabeth Stone, expected in the grand jury's Monday report, will clear the way for lunacy court action in her case, the Dallas News said.

Mrs. Stone, 48, was arrested at Dallas Love Field Feb. 19 after she fired a pistol at W. W. Dyer, 40, of Dallas as he boarded an airplane for Chicago.

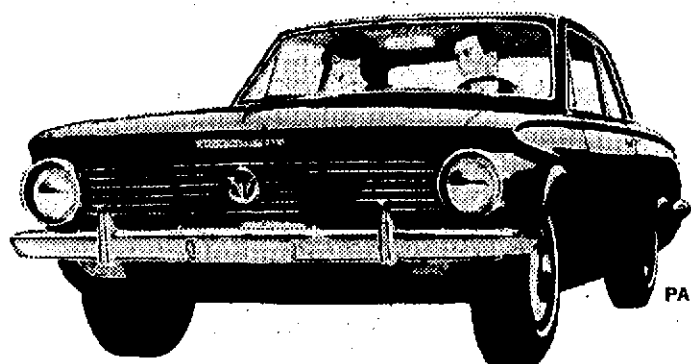

She told police she thought Dyer was McLendon and she believed the Dallas radio man was a crime syndicate leader.

Housing Authority Continues Anyway

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) - The Batesville Housing Authority said Thursday it will continue to function because a city council resolution abolishing it "is without legal effect."

The council voted Tuesday night against the authority and a low-rent housing project.

The city has spent, or committed itself to spend $15,000 and has obtained a federal grant for the project, the authority said. To abolish the authority would be breach of contract, its statement said.

A story of the long ago is told by a great adobe threshing floor which was buried three feet underground near Osceola. There, it is thought, great numbers of people for miles around brought wheat to thresh as in Bible times.

DOROTHY DIX

READER IS CERTAIN SHE HAS SEEN GHOSTS

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: I live alone in an old house, and I swear to you that I've seen ghosts on a number of occasions. They appear during storms, when our antiquated lights suddenly go off. I've told the police, but they scoff at me. Dr. Brothers, is there such a thing as a ghost? —M. B. M.

Dear M. B. M.: I'm going to give you an explanation that you probably didn't expect. There is such a thing as a ghost. In fact, I think I can tell you how to summon the spirits, and to all practical purposes, you'll see one!

You say you see apparitions, especially during storms, then the power fails, and the lights go out. Don't let this alarm you. Actually you are seeing them. But they're perfectly harmless. That is, unless you become afraid, and hurt yourself from fright. Now, let's explain ghosts.

Scientists, working in the field of visual perception, can explain why you see ghosts only at night, and why their favorite time for appearance is during a storm when the lights suddenly flick out.

Here is how they materialize: All of us see ghosts rather often, in the form of what psychologists call after-images. For instance, sit in a darkened room, and look at a very bright electric light bulb, then suddenly look away. You'll notice an image persists for some time after you've looked away.

Your after-image lasts quite a while. The long-lasting after-image ability is invaluable. It lets you enjoy movies and television. But several eminent scientists admit this ability is frightening, spectacular and unnerving when it causes nocturnal ghosts to appear. In fact, Dr. Ira Freeman, of Rutgers University, says you can summon up an assortment of apparitions yourself, on order. Here's how: Choose a dark, moonless night and draw the shades securely, so no stray light from passing cars or street lamps can center the room. If you like, ask friends to join you in your darkened living room, and seat them round a table, with a bright light placed on its center. It must be the only light in the room.

When the guests are seated, turn out the lights for about 10 minutes, and warn the participants to keep perfectly still, and especially to keep their eyes from moving when the light is suddenly turned on, and immediately afterward. Then, turn on the bright light for a full second. Then, turn it off. Very soon, your seance partners will see the scene of the gathering loom up with startling clarity in the darkness. Some of the seance partners will see details as apparent ghosts that they had not in the least observed when the light was on. If a picture of long-dead Uncle Albert was on the table, his image may materialize with startling clarity. And, in a completely darkened room, too! Apparition? Yes, in a way it is an apparition, but it has less to do with Uncle Albert's ability to return from the great beyond than your after-image ability.

And let's go a step further for a familiar graveyard apparition. For example: A man is taking a short-cut through a graveyard on a dark, overcast night. The moon happens to break through a rift in the clouds, just as he's opposite a large, white tombstone. He hurries on, and in a few minutes sees a vague, white form in the darkness ahead of him. What's happened is this: It's the occurrence of the same after-image in the darkened seance room I just described.

Cotton-Measure Goes Before Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate plunges into debate on the cotton-wheat bill today, having overridden Republican objections against bringing it up before civil rights.

Democratic strategists stuck to their decision to give the farm bill priority and won 57 to 19 Thursday on the motion of democratic leader Mike Mansfield to debate it first.

Mansfield accepted the contentions of the bill's backers that it must become law in early March if it is to do wheat and cotton growers any good this year. He told newsmen he was hopeful it could be passed by next Tuesday or Wednesday. But GOP senators scoffed at this, with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., declaring he feared it would run for weeks.

Republicans said the Johnson administration had assigned civil rights top priority this year along with the tax cut signed into law Wednesday. Since that is the case, there is no excuse for subordinating it to a farm bill, they said.

Democrats, however, said privately that the farm bill itself had political punch.

They said it would correct a disparity long protested by U.S. textile mills, who must pay more for American cotton than foreign manufacturers do, and would help prevent a drop in wheat growers' income which might be calamitous.

O'Hara Seems Apologetic About Race

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom O'Hara was a little bit apologetic about it all. He'd just run a 3:58.5 mile, second fastest ever indoors. But then, it's understandable. He wasn't feeling too well.

And he promised to do better next time.

"I don't know what I'll do in the Chicago News Relays," O'Hara said today, looking ahead to his next indoor effort. "But I can promise you this: I'll be better than last night."

His coach, Jerry Weiland, predicted the 21-year-old Chicago Loyola student would go 3:54 or 3:55 in Chicago Friday, March 6.

Tom, who established a 3:56.8 indoor standard two weeks ago, also bettered the listed indoor 1500 meter mark en route to his full mile victory in Thursday night's Knights of Columbus Games in Madison Square Garden.

He hit the 150 meters in 3:46.3, compared with the listed mark of 3:46.6 by Hungary's Istvan Nozsvay in 1961. Jim Beatty, however, has done an unofficial 3:43.2, just under O'Hara's new standard, but did not apply for record recognition.

Bruce Kidd, 20-year-old distance star from Toronto, remained unbeaten on the Madison Square Garden boards, ripping from behind for a two-mile triumph in a meet record 8:39.

Australia's veteran Ron Clarke, who set the indoor three mile standard just a week ago, set all the early pace but was beaten by two yards by Kidd's killing kick.

Mantle Signs for Another $100,000

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Mickey Mantle, the American League's highest salaried star, has modest ambitions for a hundred thousand dollar a year man.

Baseball's greatest switch hitter wants to play 150 games this year. He also would like to hit 500 home runs before he calls it a career. In 13 major league seasons, all with the New York Yankees, Mantle has hit 419 home runs.

These aims are not as trifling as they seem. Playing 150 or more games a season has been as difficult for Mickey as a .300 batting average for the average player. Only four times has the brittle athlete reached 150 games and twice he had to achieve that figure with the aid of pinch hit appearances.

Normally a slugger of Mantle's calibre would figure to accumulate around 600 lifetime homers, until you take into account his history of crippling injuries, the last of which reduced his activity to 65 games in 1963. A foot fracture last June 5 caused him to be sidelined for more than a month. A torn cartilage which necessitated a post-season knee operation, kept him out of action for another month.

Another similar injury might end his playing days altogether. "I felt like quitting last year," Mantle admitted during a lavish press conference marking his signing of a second successive $100,000 contract as the Yankees officially opened spring training Thursday.

"I feel a lot better now, though," he added. "I think my knees, both of them, will hold up. I've done a lot of running and have played a lot of golf this winter. The other day I was timed for the 100 yards in 11 seconds and I ran at only three-quarters speed."

"Also I've been exercising with those new isometric bars and they've strengthened my legs and knees considerably. I've always had bad knees. If I had done this at the beginning, I wouldn't have had any trouble with my knees."

Mantle, who will be 33 next October, thinks he can play at top speed for another three to four years.

"That is," he said quickly, "if everything goes well. You never can tell what the future holds for you. Something always seems to happen to me. But I see no reason why I can't play until I'm 35 or 36. Of course, I'd like to play as long as Stan Musial did. But how many do?"

Mantle would like to remain in the game in a coaching capacity when his active days are over.

Mantle wasn't the only name player to sign Thursday. The Minnesota Twins corralled home run champ Harmon Killebrew and the Chicago White Sox received a contract from 20-game winner Ray Herbert.

In the National League, St. Louis Cardinals signed first baseman Bill White who hit .304 last year.

In 1819 not a white woman lived in Little Rock.

Indian Burial Ground at Okolona Is Uncovered

—Hargrave Studio photo in Gurdon (Ark.) Times

OKOLONA INDIAN BURIAL GROUNDS are giving up many interesting artifacts that are 2,000 to 3,000 years old. Fred Kizzia, Texarkana archaeologist, who has had many years excavating experience and works with the University of Arkansas, is in charge of the excavating. The burial grounds are on the Leonard May property. Mrs. Kizzia uses tools from a tractor and scoop, to as small as ice picks to properly uncover such items as skeletons, tomahawks, arrows, jars, vases, knife blades from rock. It is estimated that this place was used as long as 3,000 years ago by the Arcadian Indians and again about 800 year ago by the Ouachita Indians.

Texas Star Picks the Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — David Dickey, 6-foot-1, 195-pound halfback from Palestine, Tex., signed a letter of intent Thursday night to attend the University of Arkansas.

Dickey made the Class AAA All-State team in Texas in 1963, and is rated a top runner and blocker.

He has lettered in football and basketball four years and in track three years. Next to football, he says, track is his favorite sport.

Dickey is a 9.9 second man in the 100-yard dash and has been clocked in 19.7 in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas signed Dickey. With Broyles were assistant coach Bill Pace and former Arkansas star Lance Alworth, now with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

Mantle was the only name player to sign Thursday. The Minnesota Twins corralled home run champ Harmon Killebrew and the Chicago White Sox received a contract from 20-game winner Ray Herbert.

Derby Status Colt Could Be Picked

By TED MEIER Associated Press Sports Writer

Whether California has a colt worthy of Kentucky Derby stature will be determined Saturday with the 27th running of the $132,400 Santa Anita Derby.

The 1 1/4-mile race, one of the major winter tests that helps determine the field for the classic at Churchill Downs in Kentucky on May 2, tops the thoroughbred program this weekend.

Usually the Flamingo at Hialeah, another major test for three-year-olds, is run on the same day as the Santa Anita. This year, however, the Flamingo is set for next Tuesday, closing day at Hialeah.

Replacing the Flamingo Saturday is the $75,000-added Hialeah Turf Cup.

Hill Rise, owned by George Pope, Jr. of San Francisco, tops the Santa Anita field. Winner of his last five races, he will be ridden by Don Pierce.

His strongest opposition is expected from Wil Rad, Bill Hartack up. Wil Rad drew the No. 1 post position and Hill Rise No. 8.

Completing the field is The Scoundrel, Stargazer, Madias, Knightly Manner, Real Good Deal and the entry of Ramant and Count Charles. All carry 118 pounds.

Manuel Ycaza had the mount on Knightly Manner, but he drew a five-day suspension Thursday which not only cost

Question Is Can Clay Really Fight?

By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—Everybody knows Cassius Clay can talk. The question is: Can he fight?

Even though he is the new heavyweight champion of the world, surprise conqueror of the formidable Sonny Liston, there still is widespread reluctance to rate him the true king of the fist fighters.

Liston himself holds the Louisville youngster in contempt. The former champion says he lost to Clay last Tuesday night only because he wrenched his shoulder in the first round and couldn't go on after the sixth.

"He's a dancer—a foot racer," Liston said dourly of Cassius after their bout. "Floyd Patterson was better."

This borders on insult since Liston twice demolished Patterson in the first round.

Many ring observers consider the good-looking, 22-year-old former Olympic champion still a crude amateur who has gained his present high station on an astounding combination of expert managerial handling, good breaks and impudence.

They rate him no better than an even-money bet against a half-dozen contenders and say Liston would hammer him into senselessness if he had two good arms.

Others tag Clay a modern wizard, blessed with exceptionally fast hands and feet, a head, lightning reflexes and enough confidence to stock an army.

Pay your money and take your choice but you still wind up with the fact that Clay has not yet convincingly proved himself—in the tradition of Jack Dempsey, Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano—that he can lick anybody of unlimited size in the padded ring.

Only a repeat, unsullied victory over the powerful Liston can bring him this distinction and even then there probably would be some fudges to contend that he won over a weary old man.

Clay's record shows 20 victories, 16 by knockouts, since he put his Olympic gold medal in the trophy case and turned professional in October, 1960.

You can't fault that record on the surface, but you have to make reservations when you consider how the mark was achieved. The 11-man Louisville syndicate which assumed Clay's management and the wily trainer Angelo Dundee, did a masterful job in nursing their product to this multi-million-dollar shot at the championship.

They had a master plan. They fed him a succession of easy opponents, not set-ups entirely but men they knew Cassius could lick. In many cases, these were reputable fighters going down the sunset side of the hill.

Even then, there were some close shaves. On Feb. 10, 1962, Sonny Banks, a clumsy operator just out of the preliminary ranks, belted Clay with a left that sent him spinning to the canvas. Billy Daniels staggered him twice on May 19, of the same year. Doug Jones held him to split decision on March 13 last year before a packed house at Madison Square Garden. And Henry Cooper, a chopped-up, cut-prone old fighter from Britain well past his prime, dropped him in a bout in London last June.

These spotty successes brought Cassius to the threshold, where he surprised the boxing world by stopping Liston, a 7-1 favorite in the seventh round.

The glowering, bull-strong defending champion insisted that after hurting his shoulder with a wild left hook in the opening round he was fighting "like a man handcuffed to a tree."

When Liston said, this however, he wore dark glasses to hide a patch covering a six-stitch wound on his left cheek. There was a big knot on his right cheek and the looked like a chopped-up, beaten and crestfallen man.

There are those who believe Clay, who fought a masterful fight, would have whipped the lumbering, sluggish Liston anyhow and certainly would have knocked him out in the seventh or eighth round had the bout been allowed to continue.

Clay's strategy was impeccable, even if he failed to uncork the kind of explosive punch that brings a fight to a sudden and indisputable ending. He moved from side to side with the grace of a ballet dancer, he kept flicking shots through openings as Liston charged him, like an enraged beast.

It was the clever matador against the dull bull. Clay weaved and danced. He moved in and out. As the fight progressed and Liston slowed, Clay became bolder and more careless, stood toe-to-toe with Liston at times and gained in confidence and sheer arrogance.

"This boy has everything," says Dundee, Clay's trainer. "He has great legs. His hands are as fast as a snake's tongue. His reflexes are amazing. What
